

Scholarship Rules and Regulations for High School Applicants

Essay Requirements

Essays will be judged on whether the student is able to argue for and justify his or her ideas on renewable energy. Judges will look for writing that is clear, articulate and logically organized. Essay must be 750 words in length. Spelling errors and/or written corrections found by the judges on the essay will count against the final score and should be omitted before submission.

Applicant Eligibility

Applicants must be a U.S. Citizen or Permanent Legal Resident of the United States. Employees of Semper Solaris, its parents, affiliates and subsidiaries, participating advertising and promotion agencies, and members of said employees' immediate family and those living in the same household of employees are not eligible.

Applicants must be a current senior high school student at the time of submission. Applicants must have a cumulative high school grade point average of at least 3.0 on a 4-point scale, and be enrolled full-time as a high school senior between January 1, 2023 and December 31, 2023.

Applicants attending military academies and home school are eligible for this scholarship.

Distribution of Payments

The two winning applicants will each receive a one-time, $500 scholarship. The scholarship is to be applied to qualified expenses, including undergraduate tuition, fees, books, and on-campus room and board for the 2023 academic year. Funds are provided directly by Semper Solaris. Payments are issued by Semper Solaris, made payable to the student to the last address designated by the student. Payments are sent after Semper Solaris has received proof of GPA and enrollment from the student's high school.

Winner Selection and Announcements

The winner will be announced a week after the deadline. Each entry will be judged on creativity, intricacy, and relevance to the prompt, as well as how they promoted their post. All entries must be shared with scholarships@sempersolaris.com.

Responsibilities of Recipients

The recipient must be actively enrolled at the time of submission full-time as a senior student in Spring 2023 - Fall 2023 and for the entire academic year without interruption, barring illness, or emergency. The recipient must send proof of GPA and enrollment from the student's school within 30 days of being contacted as a winner. It is the recipient's responsibility to verify receipt of funds and notify Semper Solaris should the award check not arrive on or after 30 days from the issue date.
